LESSON 5: AUTOMATED MESSAGES & FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Automated messages are the first emotional touchpoint with new followers and subscribers. They set the tone for the entire relationship. A good automated message makes the fan feel noticed and welcome. A bad one makes them feel like they just subscribed to a spam list. This lesson covers how to set up messages that create connection, not resistance.

Welcome Message for New Followers

The purpose of this message is not to sell. It is to make the fan feel noticed and create an opening for conversation. Most fans receive nothing — a warm welcome immediately sets you apart.

- Friendly greeting with a soft, personal tone
- No prices, no discounts, no content mentions
- Create curiosity and encourage a reply
- Sound like a real person, not a bot or template

GOOD EXAMPLE:

Hey, I just saw you follow me. That was sweet of you. Where are you from?

(Simple, warm, creates conversation opening.)

BAD EXAMPLE:

Thanks for following! Subscribe now for exclusive content! Link below!

(Transactional, cold, zero personality. Instant unfollow.)

Welcome Message for New Subscribers

Sent immediately after someone subscribes. The purpose is to emotionally reward the action and make the subscriber feel they made a good decision.

- Warm welcome that emotionally rewards their decision to subscribe
- Soft direction toward engaging with your content
- Make them feel special — not like subscriber #47
- Ask a question to start a conversation

GOOD EXAMPLE:

I was hoping you would join me here. This feels more personal already. Tell me what made you decide to subscribe?

(Warm, personal, creates dialogue.)
