Whale Management

Learn the essentials of whale management

AI INFLUENCER METHOD | OUR DISCORD

WHALE MANAGEMENT

Whales are long-term revenue assets. They are identified by repeat spending, emotional attachment, and frequent interaction. They are internally flagged and prioritized.

Whales Require

- Faster response
- Higher personalization
- Emotional continuity
- Exclusive tone

Whales are given rituals such as priority replies and private language. They spend when they feel irreplaceable and chosen.

END SUMMARY

- Chat creates profit — traffic only creates opportunity
- Every message must build trust, desire, or move toward spending
- Fans spend when they feel safe, understood, curious, and chosen
- Message priority: Whales first, new subscribers second, unanswered third
- Profiling replaces guessing — gather data naturally through conversation
- All chats follow: Rapport → Tension → First Sale → Upsell → Retention
- Never beg, never rush, never argue, never explain prices
- Chat builds lifetime value, not instant money
