OBSERVATION PERIOD

No candidate should get direct access after testing. They must first observe trained chatters for one to two days.

During This Period They Should

- Watch how real conversations look
- Understand tone and structure
- Learn pacing and discipline

This stage filters out people who lose interest quickly or cannot focus. Only candidates who stay attentive and engaged should move forward.

END SUMMARY

- Chatters are operators — their performance directly affects profit and risk
- Hiring correctly increases stability and revenue
- Hiring poorly increases loss and exposure
- Live interviews, live English testing, and controlled access are not optional
- Most losses come from rushing hires, skipping tests, and trusting without verification
- Payment must be on time — delayed pay creates risk
- Structure separates scalable operations from chaos
- Treat chatters with respect — they control your revenue
