TIMING & CONTEXT SYSTEM

Before any selling attempt, the system checks context. Selling without timing reduces open rates and increases objections. Timing turns messages into moments.

Context Checks

- Is the fan busy?
- Is the fan present?
- Is the fan distracted?

This determines when to escalate and how to frame the message.

END SUMMARY

- Chat creates profit — traffic only creates opportunity
- Every message must build trust, desire, or move toward spending
- Fans spend when they feel safe, understood, curious, and chosen
- Message priority: Whales first, new subscribers second, unanswered third
- Profiling replaces guessing — gather data naturally through conversation
- All chats follow: Rapport → Tension → First Sale → Upsell → Retention
- Never beg, never rush, never argue, never explain prices
- Chat builds lifetime value, not instant money
