THE AI INFLUENCER METHOD

CHOOSING YOUR NICHE — READ THIS FIRST

Do not just pick a generic blonde girl — that space is completely oversaturated and you will not stand out. You need to choose a niche that is currently working and has demand. Look at what's trending, what audiences are engaging with, and build your persona around that.

Exotic niches (vitiligo, heterochromia, and similar unique traits) are highly not recommended. Fanvue has been actively cracking down on these types of models. While you can technically sell them on other platforms for AI content, the reality is that generating NSFW content for these models is extremely difficult for no good reason — the tools just don't handle it well. Save yourself the headache and pick a niche that works with the current tools and platforms.

The Core Tool Stack

These are the only tools you need. Each one serves a specific function in the content pipeline. Keep it simple — do not overcomplicate your stack.

- Seedream 4.5 — AI image generation (NSFW content)
- Nano Banana 2 — AI image generation (SFW photorealistic output)
- Photopea — Image editing and artifact removal (free)
- link.me — Link in bio funnel page (free)
- Telegram — Pre-sell warming channel (free)
- CapCut — Video editing (free)

HIGGSFIELD — ALL-IN-ONE OPTION

Higgsfield ($50/month) bundles AI image generation, video generation, and editing into a single platform. If you want one tool that does everything instead of juggling multiple services, this is the recommended option.

Reality Check

Results vary — you can start seeing results within weeks or months. Consistency is key. The operators making serious money have put in consistent daily work building their systems. This is not a get-rich-quick scheme, but those who stay consistent see real returns.

Primary Platforms

- Instagram — Main traffic and brand hub. This is your most important platform
- Threads — Engagement and discovery engine that feeds Instagram growth
- Telegram — Pre-sell funnel that warms followers before they subscribe
- Fanvue — Paid adult subscription platform for monetization

Support Platforms

- TikTok — Secondary reach and discovery (supplements Instagram)
- Reddit — Niche viral exposure inside specific communities
- Twitter/X — Brand presence and discovery through conversations

What You Do NOT Need to Start

- You do NOT need a $3,000 PC — cloud-based tools work for beginners
- You do NOT need multiple phones — start with one persona, one device
- You do NOT need a VPN — unnecessary and can trigger platform suspicion
- You do NOT need a team — solo operators can run one page profitably
- You do NOT need advanced video editing skills — simple clips outperform complex ones

END SUMMARY

- The AI Influencer Method is a real business — results vary, you can see results within weeks or months. Consistency is key
- Revenue comes from the funnel: Social Media → link.me → Telegram → Fanvue (paid adult subscription platform)
- Core tools: Seedream 4.5 (NSFW), Nano Banana 2 (SFW), Photopea, link.me, Telegram, CapCut — Higgsfield ($50/month) as all-in-one alternative
- Instagram and Threads are mandatory primary platforms — TikTok, Reddit, and Twitter/X support the system
- Start with one persona, master the system, then scale — do not skip steps or rush the process
