CHAT FLOW STRUCTURE

The Flow

- → Rapport — builds trust
- → Tension — builds curiosity
- → First Sale — filters buyers
- → Upsell — increases value
- → Retention — increases lifetime value

END SUMMARY

- Chat creates profit — traffic only creates opportunity
- Every message must build trust, desire, or move toward spending
- Fans spend when they feel safe, understood, curious, and chosen
- Message priority: Whales first, new subscribers second, unanswered third
- Profiling replaces guessing — gather data naturally through conversation
- All chats follow: Rapport → Tension → First Sale → Upsell → Retention
- Never beg, never rush, never argue, never explain prices
- Chat builds lifetime value, not instant money
